Mesa Airlines Promotes Tyler Campbell to Vice President of Safety and Security

PHOENIX – April 29, 2016 – Mesa Airlines, Inc. today announced that Tyler Campbell, who has served as the company’s Director of Safety since 2012, has been promoted to Vice President of Safety and Security.

Campbell joined Mesa in 2006 as a Safety Department Intern, and has held positions of increasing responsibility including Flight Crew Tracker, OSHA/EPA Coordinator, Emergency Response Coordinator, Internal Evaluation Program (IEP) Auditor, Manager of Operations Safety, and Manager of Regulatory Programs.

“Tyler has proven himself as a valuable member of our operations management team and has represented Mesa well as our safety program liaison to regulatory agencies, our airline partners and our people,” said Chairman and CEO Jonathan Ornstein.

“A Mesa pilot himself, Tyler has a first-hand understanding of our operation and a familiarity with our fleet that is extremely valuable,” said Chief Operating Officer John Selvaggio. “We are very pleased Tyler has taken on this expanded role.”

Campbell graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Aeronautical Management Technology from Arizona State University.
